

TODAY

MEDIACORP

THURSDAY, 20 NOVEMBER 2014

MCI (P) 046/06/2014

PHOTO: RAJ NADARAJAN

AFFORDABLE ART? I JUST DON'T BUY IT Contractors look at an artwork titled Glam Bag by artist Debra Franes-Bean. The piece, made from found objects and resin, weighs 15kg and costs S$10,000. The Affordable Art Fair opens today at the F1 Pit Building. Into its fifth year in Singapore, it features a record 108 galleries and 950 artists. Contemporary artworks are priced between S$100 and S$10,000, with 75 per cent of them under S$7,500.

POLICE NAB AT LEAST 6 FOR ASSAULT, DAMAGING PROPERTY

Tensions rise as HK activists clash with police

Protest leaders distance themselves from group that broke into legislature building

HONG KONG – Tensions spiked early yesterday at democracy protests that have gripped Hong Kong for nearly two months as a small group of activists clashed with the police while trying to break into the city's legislature.

The police arrested at least six people for assaulting officers and causing "criminal damage" to property, and also warned of more arrests.

Protest leaders distanced themselves from and condemned the violence, but they also blamed the Hong Kong government for angering demonstrators by failing to respond to their demands.

● CONTINUED ON PAGE 2

Four major travel agencies to boycott NATAS fair

JOY FANG
joyfangz@mediacorp.com.sg

SINGAPORE – The popular mega travel fair organised by the National Association of Travel Agents Singapore (NATAS) has been hit by the boycott of four of the biggest travel agencies here, which are planning to hold a rival fair in March on the same dates as the next NATAS travel fair.

TODAY understands that the breakaway arose from disagreements over the entrance fees that NATAS charges the public and how the proceeds from the fair were used.

● CONTINUED ON PAGE 8

Do you know:

Where your labels come from?

Aberdeen
Simply asset management.

Search online for 'Aberdeen Discoveries' or scan QR code for the answer and stand to win a $1000 travel voucher!

TASTE IS KING™

BK 9-in-1

9 delectable layers of ingredients in 1 burger

Nine layers that impress with every look. One eating experience that astounds with every bite. Savour a perfect blend of flavours that's so wonderful, it'll bring you to cloud 9. The BK 9-in-1, available in beef or chicken.

Limited Time Only

PREMIUM CHICKEN THIGH

9-in-1 Chicken

www.burgerking.com.sg | Burger King Singapore

TM Burger King Corporation, © 2014 BK AsiaPac, PTE. LTD. All rights reserved. Visuals shown for illustration purposes only. Whilst stocks last.